

Rebecca Hardcastle Wright

Rebecca Hardcastle Wright, PhD, is the founder of the Institute for Exoconsciousness based in Washington, DC. The Institute's mission is to support ET Experiencers through research and application of the innate ability of human consciousness to connect and communicate with ETs. The Institute builds bridges between ET experiencers and consciousness science as well as connects ET experiencers with an international network of experiencer groups.

Rebecca's signature is exploring what it means to be an Exoconscious Human— how we form an ET identity and create ET-Human community. Her personal ET contact began in early childhood and continues today.

Rebecca is a futurist, author, and keynote speaker who practices as a hypnotherapist and coach. She teaches Exoconsciousness at International Metaphysical University. She authored Exoconsciousness: Your 21st Century Mind.

Formerly, she was a member of Apollo 14 Astronaut, Dr. Edgar Mitchell's Quantrek international science team, researching zero-point energy, consciousness, and the ET Presence. In 2005 Rebecca taught one of the first ufology courses in the nation at Scottsdale Community College. In Arizona she was a member of the Phoenix Lights community and featured in the documentary, The Phoenix Lights: We are not Alone.

Her graduate degrees include an MDiv in Philosophical Theology from Boston University School of Theology and a PhD in Parapsychic Science from American Institute of Holistic Theology. Her undergraduate degree is from Otterbein University. She received her training and certification as a hypnotherapist and coach at Southwest Institute for Healing Arts.
